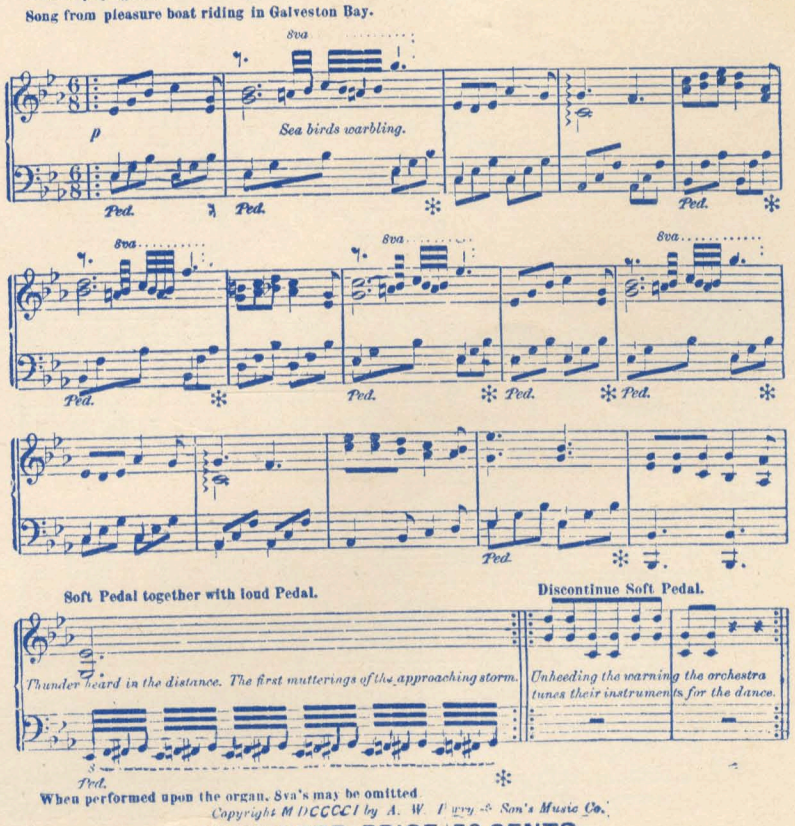
The Great Storm at Galveston.

AN IMITATION OF NATURE.

Composed by M. W. BUTLER.

The following tone picture is conveyed bythis composition. A party on pleasure bent are sailing in Galveston harbor, While they are singing songs and dancing the storm approaches, The thunder, the roaring of the water and the fire bells are heard in quick succession. On the judicious management of the soft Pedal, in connection with the loud Pedal, the effect of this piece mainly depends. Care should be taken to commence the thunder softly, without playing the notes distinctly.

Song from pleasure boat riding in Galveston Bay.



When performed upon the organ, 8va's may be omitted.
